

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

Former Attache C/A Honored

Miss Ellen Collins, associate editor of World Affairs Magazine and an editorial analyst for the United States Government, has been awarded the 1958 Magnificat Medal of Mundelein College. She is a specialist in international affairs with emphasis on Latin America, Spain and Portugal.

She has served as cultural attache of the United States embassies in Quito, Ecuador and Caracas, Venezuela. She also has done free-lance work in student-exchanging between the United States and foreign nations.

Miss Collins has received previous recognition for her work.

She was awarded the Cross of the Order of Isabella the Catholic by the Spanish Government in 1956; the Cross of the Legion of Honor and Merit by the Republic of Haiti in 1955; and the Our Lady of Guadalupe Gold Medal for exceptional contributions to Inter-American friendship by St. John's University in Brooklyn in 1949.

The presentation will be made May 8 at Mundelein College in Chicago.

Miss Collins was graduated from St. Joseph College in Emmitsburg, Md. and received her master of arts degree from Columbia University.

She also did additional graduate work at the University of San Marcos, in Lima, Peru; at the National University of Mexico, and at Georgetown University.